ANNUAL REPORT

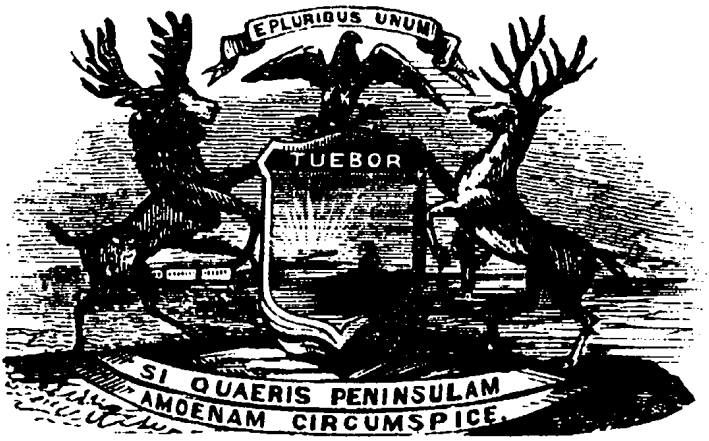
OF THE

ATTORNEY GENERAL

OF THE

STATE OF MICHIGAN,

FOR THE YEAR 1870.



BY AUTHORITY.

LANSING:
W. S. GEORGE & CO., PRINTERS TO THE STATE.
1870.

REPORT.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Lansing, Dec. 31, 1870.

To the Honorable the Legislature of the State of Michigan:

I have the honor herewith to submit my official report for the year 1870.

At the date of my last report, the case of M. Henry Roberts, plaintiff in error, vs. The People, defendants in error, was pending in the Supreme Court. At the last January term, the judgment of the court below was reversed on the ground of refusals to charge as requested by the respondent, and for error in the charge to the jury.

At the July term of the Supreme Court, judgment of ouster was entered in all the cases of quo warranto from Chippewa county, in favor of the several relators.

In the case of The People ex rel. James Mathews, to test the right of Henry D. Smith to hold the office of Treasurer of Marquette county, the Supreme Court, at its April term, held that the relator was not entitled to the office, and that the respondent was.

The case of The People vs. Henry Johr and his sureties, referred to in my last report, was tried December 12, 1870, in the St. Clair Circuit Court, and under the charge of the Court a verdict was rendered for the defendants. The Court held that as the bond was not approved by the Auditor General, as provided by Section 877, compiled laws, and the declaration counted upon it only as a statutory bond, the People could not recover. Time was given to move for a new trial, and to prepare a bill of exceptions.

The case of The People vs. George W. Brown and his sureties is still pending in the Jackson Circuit. I have been ready and quite anxious to dispose of the case, but as defendant Brown appears in person, and Gov. Blair for defendant Root, and the first resides in Chippewa county, and the other is a member of Congress, I have not been able to force them to trial.

I have the assurance of Gov. Blair that an arrangement will soon be made to try and dispose of the case.

The suit against Bosworth, referred to in my last report, has been disposed of, and the object of the proceedings fully accomplished.

The case of the First National Bank of Sturgis vs. W. M. Watkins, Sheriff, etc., was submitted at the October term of the Supreme Court, and the judgment of the Circuit Court was affirmed, on the ground that the payment of the illegal bank tax (Act 122, laws of 1867) to the Sheriff, was compulsory, and that the Auditor General's warrant furnished no protection to the officer.

The Supreme Court, at its April term, held in the case of Ralph C. Smith, complainant, vs. The Auditor General et al., that the tax law of 1869 was prospective in its operation, and not retroactive, and that the taxes assessed in 1868 must be collected and be governed by the laws then in existence.

By Joint Resolution No. 33, laws of 1869, the Dewey-Hazzleton claim was referred to the Board of State Auditors for settlement and compromise.

On the 14th day of December, 1870, I received a notice from His Excellency the Governor of the State, that the Board was not able to effect a settlement of the claim. I shall take immediate steps to get a decree in the Genesee Circuit, where the cause is pending.

At the January term of the Supreme Court, In re. Eliza Weinrich was argued and submitted by Hon. Geo. V. N. Lothrop for The People. The case came up on certiorari to Wayne county Circuit Court. The party was convicted at Flint under Act No. 145, laws of 1869, and sentenced to the Detroit House of Correction. The judgment of the Court below was reversed and the respondent discharged, the Court holding that the statute under which she was convicted and sentenced applied only to Wayne county, and did not apply to the county of Genesee.

At the April term of the Supreme Court, the case of George W. Enders, plaintiff in error, vs. The People, defendants in error, was ably argued by L. T. Durand, Esq. The judgment of the Court below was reversed, on the ground of a radical defect in the information. The plaintiff in error was charged in the Oakland Circuit with having obtained a sale of real estate under false representations. The information did not contain a sufficient allegation of sale.

At the same term of the Supreme Court, the case of Leverett W. Fisher, plaintiff in error, vs. The People, defendants in error, was argued. Fisher was convicted in the Kalamazoo Circuit of the crime of grand larceny. The judgment of the Court below was affirmed.

At the same term the case of John Summers, plaintiff in error, vs. The People, defendants in error, from Macomb Circuit, was dismissed for want of prosecution.

At the same term the matter of The People ex rel. Charles H. Estes vs. John Denahy, treasurer, etc., was submitted. Estes was appointed a Commissioner under Act No. 471, vol. 2, laws of 1867, to lay out one of the State roads therein named. Denahy was treasurer of one of the townships on the line of one of the proposed roads, and refused to pay over to the relator the non-resident highway taxes collected by him, as provided in the act.

The Court refused the mandamus on the ground that said act was in conflict with Sec. 20, of Art. 4, State Constitution.

At the July term, the case of The People ex rel. N. B. Jones vs. the Commissioner of the State Land Office was argued. The relator asked for a mandamus to compel respondant to issue a Primary School Land certificate to him of certain lands, and claiming that Act No. 85, laws of 1869, is unconstitutional. The court did not sustain this view of the Act, and denied the motion.

At the same term the case of Virginia Doyle, plaintiff in error, vs. The People, defendants in error, was argued. Plaintiff in error was convicted in the Recorder's Court of Detroit, of the crime of mingling poison (arsenic) with port wine, with intent to kill one Catharine DeBaptiste. It was claimed that the Recorder erred in admitting improper testimony. The Court held there was no error in the record.

At the October term of the Supreme Court, I argued the case of Harry B. Hall, plaintiff in error, vs. The People, defendants in error. Hall was charged under Section 5837, compiled laws, with having falsely assumed to act as moderator of school district No. 1, of the township of Sheridan, in the county of Calhoun. Many errors were assigned to the rulings of the Circuit Court in the admission and rejection of evidence. The Supreme Court reversed the judgment.

At the same term of the Court, the case of Elon G. Parsons, plaintiff in error, vs. The People, defendants in error, was argued. Parsons was convicted in the Branch Circuit of the crime of adultery with one Sarah M. O'Rourk. The complaint was made by the husband of Mrs. O'Rourk. The Court below permitted the prosecution to use Mrs. O'Rourk as a witness to prove the adultery. It was claimed that Section 4, of Act 125, laws of 1861, did not authorize the wife to testify in this class of cases. The Court held otherwise, and affirmed the judgment.

At the September term of the Kalamazoo county Circuit Court, by direction of His Excellency the Governor, I assisted the Prosecuting Attorney in the trial of Frederick Warner, charged with the murder of Adelbert Smith. Warner was convicted of murder in the second degree, and sentenced by Judge Upson to sixteen years hard labor in the prison at Jackson.

At the same term of said Court, by the same direction, I assisted in the second trial of George Vanderpool, charged with the murder of Herbert Field at Manistee, September 5th, 1869. The jury failed to agree upon a verdict, and were discharged.

At the April term of the Supreme Court, I attempted to initiate proceedings against The Ætna Live Stock, Fire, and Tornado Insurance Company, of Oxford, Oakland county, under Section 26, of Act 136, laws of 1869, but on the intimation of the Court that the statute undertook to confer original jurisdiction upon the Court not authorized by the Constitution of the State, I withdrew the application, and attempted, at the October term, to proceed under Chapter 161, compiled laws, but failed to get service of the order to show cause before the final adjournment of the term.

The new tax law of 1869 has been a prolific source of litigation, and of many questions difficult of solution. A number of suits have been commenced in several of the Circuit Courts, and injunctions obtained to restrain the collection of taxes. As it is impossible to so divide myself up as to attend in person to all of these cases, I have forwarded the papers to the Prosecuting Attorneys of the counties where the suits are pending, with the direction that they appear and defend for the State.

During the past year the official correspondence of this office has increased over that of the previous year. Very much of it comes from the newly organized townships and counties. A large share of my own time, and that of my faithful clerk, Wm. N. Brown, Esq., has been occupied in looking after the interests of the State.

The several Prosecuting Attorneys of the State have been prompt in affording me whatever assistance was required of them, and no instance has come to my knowledge where the interests of the State have been neglected by either of them.

I take this occasion to repeat the suggestions made in my last report, that the reports of Prosecuting Attorneys should include all the criminal business of the county to a certain date, so that whatever change there may be in the office, the reports will contain all the criminal business in the county from year to year. If this is done, the reports of the Attorney General will be more valuable than at present, and will more faithfully indicate the increase or decrease of crime in the State than they now do.

Blanks were early sent to all the Prosecuting Attorneys in the State, upon which to make their reports to this office. I regret to state that I have received no reports from the counties of Chippewa, Delta, and Ontonagon.

Herewith find abstracts of such reports as have been received.

Yours respectfully,

DWIGHT MAY,

Attorney General.
